

CHANDRA OLSEN

Clinic Manager, North Campus

What inspired you to become an educator?

During my instructor trainee externship, the connection with the students' learning showed me I had to do this.

What do you like most about instructing the next generation of cosmetologists?

Showing them that their opportunities are boundless - they can accomplish whatever they set their minds on.

What is a typical day like in your position?

Overseeing operations and student activity on the clinic floor.

What is your fondest memory thus far as an educator?

Any and every time a student tells me I've made a difference in their life.

What advice do you like to share with new students and/or those preparing to graduate?

Always be open to change and learning new things.
