

MARY SIPIN

Director of Education, South Campus

What inspired you to become an educator?

My educator while I was in school. I never knew that becoming an educator was something available to me. When my educator suggested it me I became curious.

What do you like most about instructing the next generation of cosmetologists?

I love to watch the students find their passion.

What is a typical day like in your position?

My typical day is helping my educational staff with their day-to-day and working with students to help them succeed in the program.

What is your fondest memory thus far as an educator?

The fondest memory I've had was being able to see the first class I'd taught graduate. It was very rewarding to be a part of that.

What advice do you like to share with new students and/or those preparing to graduate?

Be open and welcoming to all. Embrace all the information given to you and be humble about all your experiences.
